

LOCAL MATTERS

New fall prints at Rodman's.
"Best Liquid" paint at Goodhue & Evans.

Good Japan tea at 25 cents a pound at Klamann's.
St. Patrick's Pills, the great Irish cathartic always physic.

Mr. D. T. Parrish is recovering from a severe attack of fever.
Whitaker loans money on chattel security and a second mortgage.

For slates, pencils, tablets, school bags, pens, ink, etc., go to Allen's.

The Live Hardware means business and money saved for their customers.

You can't very well help noticing Patterson & Davies new ad. this week.

Fresh oysters, the first of the season at the Nickel Plate Saturday and Sunday.

We want some first class butter and will pay top price for it. Patterson & Davies.

Latest sheet music, instrumental, and vocal, only 10 cents each at Dr. Gillman's.

If you want nice chickens and plenty of eggs, use Royal Chicken Food. Scott & Son.

Buy your coffee at Welch's if you want to be certain that it is brewed fresh every morning.

You will get more furniture for less money at Patterson & Co's., than anywhere else. Try them.

Red, white, blue and pink sash ribbon at McClure Bros., at 35 cents a yard former price 75 cents.

We are now in receipt of a complete assortment of school books and school supplies of all kinds. Scott & Son.

Parties having property for sale in or adjoining the city may find purchasers by leaving it with Bostwick & Co.

If your title is perfect we can complete your loan in four days at the very lowest rate of interest. Bostwick & Co.

Don't disturb those heavy flannels until a while. One week of cool weather doesn't make a winter. Especially in August.

Drugs and medicines of all kinds at Cowan, Ausherman & Norris'. Prescriptions compounded at all hours of day or night.

Just received 2,000 pounds of Proctor & Gamble's soap. We will give you prices on soap never before heard of. Patterson & Davies.

We have any amount of money to loan at 6 percent, and small commission added. Call immediately at the Neosho Valley Land Office.

We would not be surprised to see another brick building or two going up in Iowa in a short time. Names are withheld until plans are perfected.

Dr. LaFay wishes us to impress the fact upon the minds of our readers that he has entirely given up the idea of leaving Iowa. See his new advertisement.

When you want to buy groceries it will pay you to go to Jacobs' North Side grocery. His stock is fresh and complete and his prices as low as the lowest.

We will loan you money on farms and stock on "payable on or before." We have the best Loan Companies in the state. Cummings & Jones.

On account of the Western National Fair at Lawrence Sept. 5th to 10th the Southern Kansas Ry. will sell round trip tickets Sept. 4th to 10th at $2.85. Tickets good returning to and including Sept. 12th.

John McKee, from west of the river, was in town Tuesday with a wagon load of the finest corn. He says that he has dug 200 bushels from a little less than an acre of ground.

The excellence of the music furnished by the band at the Eastern Star picnic on Wednesday was a surprise to those who knew that the boys have only been practicing three or four weeks. We rejoice that Iowa again has a band.

A card from Fred Funston informs us that he has accepted a "sit" as a reporter on the Kansas City Evening News. He will do "the humorous route"—coroner, undertakers, hospitals, morgue etc. The REGISTER wishes him success in his new career.

We are requested by the Superintendent, Mr. J. E. Henderson, to state that the M. E. Sunday School will be held at the Camp Ground next Sunday at the usual hour. Preaching there also at 11 a. m. and at the usual hours in the afternoon and evening.

This is essentially an "off year," with neither a national, State, congressional nor local election. The only thing that the republican party in this county completely demoralized, demoralized and scattered, and with a good for office seldom witnessed.

Do you, indeed? Somebody is likely to meet with a large sized surprise about the 8th of next November.

The 4th Annual reunion of the Allen and Anderson county Association, composed of former residents of Orleans county New York will be held at the residence of A. B. Blanchard in Lone Elm Township, Anderson county, Sept. 18th 1887. All former residents of Orleans county are cordially invited to attend.

By order of COM.

The friends of both parties will be glad to learn that the Marsh vs Davis case has been compromised on a satisfactory basis and will not be taken to the Supreme Court. The operations of the mill have been naturally embarrassed by the litigation of the past three years, and now that the load is removed it will doubtless rapidly regain its old position.

As it seen the last prospect of republican misunderstanding or contention disappear, the smile of the Democracy are vastly amusing. In one sentence it seems well pleased with the situation and in the next it is white with rage. It reminds one of a fellow sitting on a barb wire fence, trying to look calm and placid and make the public believe he is sitting there from choice, in spite of an occasional groan and a wry face.

Owing either to the carelessness or to the stupidity of the Southern Kansas railroad officials there was not a crowd at the Eastern Star picnic that was expected. The executive committee had letters from Parsons, Fredonia and other points south, and from Ottumwa and other intermediate points assuring them that the Lodges of all these places would attend if satisfactory transportation arrangements could be made. The executive committee accordingly laid the matter before the railroad officials and asked them for special trains, but they were unable to get even an answer to their letters. Such conduct on the part of the usually courteous and accommodating Southern Kansas management is hard to understand. In spite of this disappointment, however, there was a large number of our own citizens in the grove, and the picnic was thoroughly enjoyed. The band furnished excellent music, and plenty of it and the program announced last week was carried out. That those who attended had a good time was shown by the fact that they were not willing to stop picnicking when night came but repaired to the Lodge room and spent the evening in social enjoyment.

The Iowa Lodge I. O. O. F. received a visit Wednesday evening from some thirty or more of their Garnett brethren who came down to show them how to do the work in the first, second and third degrees. We are informed that the work in this order is now done largely by "teams" that specially prepare for it and are thus able to make it very beautiful and impressive. The Garnett "team" is one of the best in the State, having handsome and elaborate paraphernalia and being well versed in the work. The visitors were received with the usual hospitality of the Iowa Lodge and conducted to the Lodge room where supper was prepared for them. After the ceremonies in the Lodge room they were taken to the Nickel Plate where a banquet was spread and the time passed pleasantly until the 1:40 train was due when the visitors returned home. Members of the Order here enjoyed the visit greatly and hope that their guests can make a similar report.

While the various candidates are actively engaged in rallying as many of their friends to their standard as possible, we are glad to note that thus far the campaign has been carried on with entire fairness and good humor. This is as it should be. Because two or three or a dozen men are candidates for the same office is no reason why their personal relations should be otherwise than friendly, or that one should take an unfair advantage of another. There are not as many offices as there are candidates, so somebody is bound to be disappointed; but the preliminary campaign should be so conducted that when the nominations are made there will be no antagonisms left, and every body can swing in with a good will to elect the whole ticket. And that's the way it is going to be this year.

Has it occurred to you that it has been a little more than four months since the druggists of Iowa stopped selling intoxicating liquors of any kind for any purpose whatever? And yet there has not been a marked increase in the mortality. We have not heard of anyone dying for this reason. And, strange to say, none of our drug stores have been compelled to close their doors either, because of the loss of the whiskey trade. Indeed one of the proprietors told us that his August sales this year exceed by $40 or $50 his August sales last year in spite of the loss of the liquor trade. The refusal of the druggist to take out permits has taught the people in a few months what it would otherwise have taken them a long time to learn,—that they can get along without whiskey.

We know of a few republicans who would like to know by what authority the change was made in the law by order of the committee. Is that a fact?—Democrat.

It is a fact. But we quote the above not only to deny the insinuation contained in it, but also to remark that a "few republicans" who make a confidant of the Democrat and run to it with all the bad rumors about their own party. Some time when the Democrat has just lots of space at command we will give names. We have no doubt necessarily for publication you know but as an evidence of good faith—on the part of the Democrat.

The interviews published on our last page make it clear that an examination of every corn field in the county is the only means by which an accurate estimate of our crop can be made. No reliance whatever could be placed on an estimate based on reports from one or two fields in each township. In Geneva township, for example, John Knowlton will have thirty bushels per acre, and his neighbors less than half that, simply because he got a heavy rain that did not fall on them at all. There certainly never was a year when the crops were so "struck."

We have known for a long time that Iowa is the corn belt of the country, but we get new evidences of it every once in a while. On Tuesday we noticed a lady who lives in Moran, doing her marketing here, buying tomatoes and other vegetables. And one of our brought wagon loads of vegetables from farmers living within 25 miles of Humboldt. Not only that, but he has shipped some of those vegetables to Humboldt merchants to supply their home trade! (Humboldt papers please copy.)

Front Post office is to be moved to the center of Orleans township, and the name changed to Moran. Mrs. Lida Charles will be retained as postmaster. The change will take place October 1st.

If the office had to be named after a democrat, why didn't they name it in honor of Jackson or Jefferson or Pierce or some other man who is dead. It is never safe to name a place after a man who is alive. There are too many chances that he will do something to make the place ashamed of its name.

These railroads are greedy, grasping, soulless extortioners. The other day we wanted two packages brought down from Kansas City. One was a bundle weighing 60 pounds and one was a box weighing 30 pounds. We gave them into the care of the Southern Kansas railroad and what do you suppose it charged us? Just 45 cents for the two of them! Forty-five cents for carrying 90 pounds 100 miles! Alas, for the days of the patient ox and the festive mule!

Yeast foam at Patterson & Davies.

Klauman sells coffee at 20 cents a pound.

Lenox soap, 20 bars for $1.00. Patterson & Davies.

That Silver Leaf flour is on hand against Wright's.

"Staff of Life" and "Fancy" flour. Kingley & Wharton.

You can always get the best quality of butter and eggs at Jacobs.

Gillman has a large stock of mixed paints which he is selling very low.

Full line of staples in glass and queensware at Cowan, Ausherman & Norris'.

For 60 days we will sell all kinds of shades at 20% discount. S. H. Patterson & Co.

Large, roomy house for rent, one block east of square. Apply to C. C. Clark, Iowa.

We have the famous Lenox soap and will not be under-sold. Cowan, Ausherman & Norris.

Rev. W. H. Hyatt exchanged pulpits last Sunday morning with Rev. S. M. Irwin, of Geneva.

For prescriptions carefully compounded from the best materials, go to Scott & Son's drug store.

Carriage oil at 75 cents a gallon, warranted to take the place of castor oil, at Cowan, Ausherman & Norris.

Make up your mind to spend at least one day at the Fair in Freeman's Grove. You will be happier if you make it two.

One is reminded of the time near at hand when school will open by the stack of books in Goodhue & Evans' window.

The Kansas Farmer estimates the corn crop of the State at 40 per cent. The estimate is based on reports from 87 counties.

The Lenox soap is the best soap on the market. Just think of it, 20 bars for one dollar or 100 bars for $4.50. Patterson & Davies.

A pointer for advertisers: The harder times are the closer the people read the papers to find out where they can get the best bargains.

A. O. Allen has just received his full stock of school books and school supplies. And it will pay you to see him before buying elsewhere.

Sheriff Britton took Samuel and Wallace to the penitentiary yesterday, having been detained until then by the serious illness of his daughter.

We halten immer Farben, Oel, "Patent Medicines" und reine Apothekenwaaren, die wir verkaufen alle so billig wie der billigste. Scott & Son.

The Wichita road has fixed $9.50 as the round trip rate to the G. A. R. Encampment at St. Louis. Further details as to dates will be given in due time.

Every old soldier in the county should be at Freeman's Grove next Thursday. The eloquent speeches he will hear and the reunion with his old comrades will do him good for a year to a come.

Stock holders in the Library Association are reminded of the meeting at three o'clock to-morrow afternoon, in the Opera House, for election of a Board of Directors and other officers for the ensuing year.

Moran took her free ride over the K. C. & P. Railroad to Parsons and returned Wednesday, according to program. We regret that other duties compelled us to decline a very kind invitation to join the party.

We are glad to learn that the Carriage Company are getting their work introduced in Kansas City where it attracts much admiring attention. The Company will probably have some carriages on display there during the Exposition.

We always keep on hand and are duly authorized to sell the following articles which are the best of their kind: Bucklen's Arnica Salve, King's New Discovery, Ballard's Snow Liniment, Holland's Horse Hoof Syrup. Scott & Son.

Wm. Buchanan, just north of town, will furnish a home to a boy who is willing to do chores for his board and attend school this winter. This is a good opportunity for some enterprising young man, and we have no doubt some one will be glad to embrace it.

The attorneys in attendance at Court this week were entertained at the house of Captain Ewing on Tuesday evening. They report the entertainment worthy of the host and his accomplished family and the occasion on the whole an exceptionally bright and pleasant "oasis."

Mr. E. N. Gabe is temporarily acting as agent at the Wichita depot in the absence of Mr. Heidelberg, who is at Carthage. Mr. and Mrs. Gregg, who is at Eldorado. We understand that Mr. Heidelberg will probably be stationed permanently at Carthage, and that Mr. Gregg will be placed in charge of this station.

A prominent farmer west of the river remarked to us the other day: "I expected to raise 6,000 bushels of corn this year. I won't have 50. But I have any amount of 'roughness' and I'm going to put every dollar I can raise into cattle. I'll make my money next year." We looked at his head, and it was as level as a barn floor.

The premium committee request that stock breeders who intend to offer premiums at the approaching Fair, communicate with them at once. They also suggest that they notify all parties who have bred to their animals of the premium that will be offered so that there may be no default. It depends altogether upon the stock men themselves whether or not the "Cott Show" part of the Fair is a success, and we hope they will prove themselves equal to the occasion.

Attention is called to the new advertisement of J. F. Campbell in this paper. Mr. Campbell was in the employ of W. L. Bartels for 8 years, during two of which he had entire control of the business. He therefore knows about all there is to know about the harness trade, and starts out in business on his own hook with the most flattering prospects. Anyone wanting anything in his line will find him prompt, reliable and courteous in all his dealings.

We are told that the Leaguers claim that under recent order of the Secretary of the Interior, 300,000 acres of identity lands in this county are to be thrown open to settlement at once. This is stark idiocy. In the first place there are not 300,000 acres of railroad lands nor half of that in this county. The title to which is questioned. In the second place the Secretary of the Interior has no more authority to declare this land open than has any boggar at the cross roads. Every foot of land in Allen county has been patented to the railroad companies. These patents can only be set aside by a decision of the Supreme Court. And even after the Supreme Court has declared the patents invalid, they can only be cancelled upon suit brought for that purpose by the Attorney General. Even the Leaguers must know that the Supreme Court has not passed upon any land in this county except the M. K. & T. odd sections the title to which it confirmed in the railroad. They should remember also that in the event that the railroad patents are cancelled, those who have bought the land of the railroads, shall receive a patent to all the lands thus bought upon making proof of purchase. But the case is too plain to be argued with any patience. There is no more prospect of a Leaguer obtaining an acre of land in Allen county, except by gift or purchase, than there is of a South African savage becoming the King of England.

A gentleman who visited the State Loan Asylum recently, learned from the Superintendent that more patients came from among the farmers than from any other class of people. The gentlemen expressed some surprise at this and asked how it was accounted for. The Superintendent replied, "I can answer you in two words, 'insanity' and 'bleucitis.' It is certainly a revelation to learn that the occupation which is generally thought to be most conducive to peace of mind as well as to health of body, in reality furnishes a large majority of the victims of insanity. And it is little less startling to be told that the deadly soda bleucitis is accountable for the fact. Yet the Superintendent who made the statement is a skillful and experienced physician and doubtless knew what he was talking about. He probably reasoned that soda bleucitis was a disease of the mind and not of the body, and indigestion in many cases means insanity. There is no doubt that improper and poorly cooked food—not bleucitis alone—is responsible for a large proportion of the ills which afflict all classes of people.

Allen county farmers planted 65,345 acres of corn last spring. Allowing half of it to produce nothing, we shall have over 25,000 bushels of corn in Allen county this year. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.

The REGISTER's remarks about the surplus plainly applied to the State of Kansas. The price of any produce will make, in round numbers, 1,000,000 bushels for this county. Where is the country that can buy more corn than we have any surplus?"—Current.